Tuesday morning

Dear Louise. -

I'd get a letter to you the first of the week & will have to scratch a line or two whether there are any news or not.

Edith has just arrived with her squeak must with Lila Thurs. night. Friday - They went over to Cora's mother's Lila was going to paper a room and had Edith for company she had to work yesterday so Edith just arrived.

Aunt Maggie will not be home until Wednesday. Your Aunt's report Milly is just fine sits by the table in the dining room just like she used to.

Elizabeth has had the house painted yellow.
